Career Objectives

- To tap my diverse professional background, academic expertise, and passion for education to make a meaningful contribution to an educational institution. To build an environment of learning, growth, and excellence for empowering students to achieve their fullest potential and contribute positively to society.

About Myself

- I have worked as a journalist for more than 15 years in various newspapers and in news portals. I was a news correspondent with The New Indian Express and Hindustan Times dailies. Later, I served as a faculty and course coordinator at the Department of Journalism and Multimedia at St. Aloysius College in Thrissur in Kerala.
- I passed my LLB degree from VES College of Law in Mumbai in high second class. Subsequently, I bagged first rank in LLM (International Trade and Commercial Law) from Chinmaya Vishwavidyapeeth Deemed-to-be University in Kochi.
- Currently, I am pursuing a part-time Ph.D programme in Corporate Governance at Hindustan Institute of Technology and Science (HITS), Chennai. My topic is “the Effectiveness of Mandatory CSR Compliance in the Corporate Sector with Special Reference to the Central Public Sector Enterprises in Kerala.”
- I have got six years of overall teaching experience and two years of experience in law teaching alone. I was an Assistant Professor of Law at Guru Nithya Chaithanya Yathi College of Law, Kayamkulam and Co-operative School of Law, Thodupuzha.

Academic Achievements

- Bagged First Rank in LM.M (International Trade and Commercial Law) from Chinmaya Vishwavidyapeeth Deemed-to-be University, Kochi in 2021.
